

725 Students Enroll In College

New Members Of The Faculty Begin Term

Five Departments Gain New Professors as Classes Get Arranged

Seven new faculty members have been added to the teaching staff of the college this year. Three of these are supervisors in the training school. They are Miss Minnie Dunn, fourth and fifth grades; Miss Jennie Louise Thurman, first grade; and Mr. Wilmer C. Berg, sixth and seventh grades. There have been additions to four other departments—Dr. Richard Beale Davis to the Department of English, Dr. Hobart C. Carter to the Department of Mathematics, Mr. Richard M. Kirby to the Department of Commerce, and Miss Mary Margaret Shaw to the Department of Dietetics and Home Economics.

Miss Dunn received her B.S. degree at the University of Alabama and her M.A. degree at Teachers College, Columbia University.

Miss Thurman holds an A.B. degree from East Texas State Teachers College and an M.A. degree from Teachers College, Columbia University.

Mr. Berg, of Vandergrift, Pa., has a B.S. degree from Juniata College, Huntingdon, Pa., and an Ed.M. degree from the University of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Davis received his B.A. degree at Randolph Macon College and his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Virginia.

Dr. Carter won his B.S. degree at the Missouri State Teachers College and his M.A. and Ph.D. degrees at the University of Missouri.

Mr. Richard M. Kirby attended Berea College, in Kentucky, where

(Continued on Page Four)

Improvements Aid Beauty of Campus

During the past summer many improvements were made on the college buildings and grounds. It should be of interest both to the new girls and to the old to know just how many changes have taken place since last spring.

More than $17,000 was spent on painting, repairs, and interior changes in Monroe Hall, Frances Willard Hall, and the old part of Virginia Hall. The most noticeable changes in these buildings are the new lighting fixtures. Much new equipment has been added to various instructional departments.

Several new brick walkways were laid, including one through the open air theater and one down to the open air swimming pool. The pool has been completed, and a new bath house and dressing rooms have been built.

Eleven thousand five hundred dollars was spent for new land in order to complete a new athletic field.

The auditorium was equipped with a ceiling of wood fiber, which has greatly improved the acoustics. Several slides in front of the president's home were corrected, and a new iron fence was constructed along the front of the campus.

In a few days beautiful wrought iron gates will be hung on the brick pillars at the college entrance. These pillars were built during the latter part of the past year with money donated by various graduating classes and friends of the college.

Mrs. Ramey Describes Trip

Travels in Western United States and Old Mexico; Studies Part of Time

Mrs. Florence P. Ramey, assistant professor of social science, traveled about 12,000 miles this summer while on a trip to California, Mexico, and other points of interest.

"Travel is more of a laboratory for geography teachers," says Mrs. Ramey. "I traveled primarily for geographical study, trying to emphasize typical geographic conditions."

Leaving soon after the close of school, Mrs. Ramey, accompanied by her daughter, Dorothy, and Helene Wallace, motored first to Texas, her home State, to visit with her family.

While in Texas, she visited the Texas Centennial where she was particularly interested in the outstanding rodeos and the Texas Cavalcade because of the historical aspect. Mrs. Ramey said that few of us realize that Texas has been under six flags during its history.

From Texas, Mrs. Ramey's mother accompanied her to California. While here Mrs. Ramey took courses at both the University of Southern California and the University of California in Los Angeles. She also studied at the University of Chicago on her way home. She took work that strengthened the geography and history courses that she teaches here. Her work will also count toward her Ph.D. degree from George Washington University.

Mrs. Ramey and her party traveled in Old Mexico and nearly all the western states. They visited Yosemite National Park, Yellowstone National Park, Grand Canyon, the Cliff Dwellings, the Great Salt Lake, and numerous other places of interest.

After studying in three different universities and visiting the campuses of Leland Stanford University and the University of California, she feels that this college compares favorably with them.

"I still felt," said Mrs. Ramey, "that ours was the most beautiful and that none was ahead of it."

Alpha Tau Pi Elects Prexy

Alpha Tau Pi professional society in elementary education held a noon call meeting Thursday and elected Estelle Warren president for the session 1936-37. Estelle is a senior who comes to us from the Summer session of the college for she was our resident in the 1936 Summer School. She is a ranking honor student of the college and holds the third degree in Alpha Tau Pi. She will rapidly become known on our Winter school campus for her good sportsmanship, her sunny disposition and sunnier hair. As a red-head, she is a "natural." Her nickname is "Carrot-top," or just "Carrot" for short.

The society decided to give a "get acquainted" dinner on Tuesday, Oct. 13, to the new pledges. The pledges for this session are Frances "Dour" Kirkwood, Mary Ellen "Twinkle" Lee, Flora "Cherub" Ryan, Nancy "Damyanknee" Cooper, Mae Lawrence "Curlewene" Shownard, Elizabeth "Buff" Haley, Elizabeth "Nolsy" Clark, and Jacqueline "Jack" Clark.

While awaiting the inevitable initiation at the regular November

Dr. M.L. Combs Welcomes All Students Here

President Stresses Need for Ability to Live With Other People

Dr. Morgan L. Combs, president of the Fredericksburg State Teachers College, delivered his annual message to the students in college auditorium at the formal opening of the second quarter of a century of the educational service of this institution.

Dr. Edward Alvey Jr., dean of the college, presided and introduced President Combs, who in turn presented the various members of the faculty. Doctor Combs paid special tribute to Professor W. H. Hamlet and stated that the latter was on "the hill" before the college was founded and that he held institutes for the certification of Virginia teachers here before the college came into existence. Professor Hamlet, he said, was the "noblest Roman of them all."

Discusses History

Dr. Combs briefly discussed the history and development of the college, both as to its buildings and physical equipment and as to its personnel and improved methods of imparting instruction and of rendering inspiration service, during which he compared the college of the present with that of ten years ago. At that time, he said, the college plant was worth seven hundred thousand dollars and today it is worth two million dollars. There were thirty-six on the faculty ten years ago, and today there are fifty-six. The enrollment ten years ago was about 412, and today it is about 762. Ten years ago there were two members of the faculty holding Ph.D. degrees, and today there are sixteen.

Art of Living

After this brief survey of the growth of the college, President Combs proceeded with the development of his theme, "The Art of Living Together." He urged the students who would become twenty-one years of age before the November election to qualify and vote giving as his reason that it was one of the obligations of citizenship. He made it clear that he was not telling them for whom to vote. He then amplified his theme, suggesting that while the present age is a period of opportunities and inspiration, it has its unfavorable as its favorable aspects. He urged the students to appreciate and to use their opportunities to make friends and to learn the art of living while they are in college. Students and citizens must not cheapen themselves to create a false impression upon their friends and acquaintances by their apparent care-free attitude, President Combs urged.

He concluded his address by making an ardent plea for the students to affiliate themselves with the local church of their choice, thereby developing the spiritual and religious aspects of their personalities. For, he said, "the church is the anchor to that which is wholesome and enduring in the life of an individual or of a nation."

meeting, these pledges have been put on strict probation. O very strict! Eyes all over Fredericksburg, college and city, are spying to see that they make no misstep. How very strict, only the pledges know.

Immense Registration Shown In Fredericksburg S. T. C.

DR. MORGAN L. COMBS

S.T.C. Grads Win Positions

Many of the 1936 graduates who received the Bachelor of Science degree or the two-year elementary certificate have been placed in teaching positions throughout Virginia and in other states.

The degree graduates teaching in Virginia are: Vernie Blankenship, Fairfax county; Catherine Brown, Rhodesville; Preston Brown, Manassas; Nancy B. Browning, Fauquier county; Harriet Bruce, Winchester; Edna Mae Daniel, Poolesville; Rebekah Davidson, Upperville; Catherine V. Davis, Newland;

Virginia B. Davis, Colonial Beach; Susie Dickinson, Hilton Village; Anne Carter Duke, Williamston; Katherine Ernest, Loudoun county; Thelma Evans, Covington; Frances Gaines, Alexandria; Marian Goodman, Portsmouth; Margaretta Hisey, Waverly; Marjorie Hundley, Gloucester county; Stuart Jones, Gloucester county; Ann Kemp, Lawrenceville; Adelle Mansfield, Fairfax; Winnie Mason, Tangier Island; Ethel Nelson, Loudoun county;

Lillie Turman, Clarendon; Zela Ferrara, Tappahannock; Anna McWhirt, Crewe; Olivia Wheeler, Covington; Vivian Woodard, Fairfax; Ruby Lee Norris, Kilmarnock; Mary Paul Phillips, Clifton Forge; Julia Frances Robinson, Kilmarnock; Evelyn Suttle, Appalachia; Mary Frances Rowe, Alexandria; Garland Sanford, Colonial Beach; Joyce Stead, Norfolk; Helen M. Taylor, Covington; Zelda Mae Thomas, King and Queen County.

Those teaching out of state are: Frances Louise Smith, U. S. Government School in Puerto Rico; Alma Bailey, Farmington, Conn.; Helen Downing, Lambert, N. C.; Mildred Edg, Columbus, Ga.; Frances Flaherty, North Carolina; Ruth McIntire, Wilmington, N. C.; Margaret Moore, Frederick, Md.; Sue Phillips, Rotan, Texas; Ina Belle Rogers, Dover, N. C.

The placement of two-year elementary graduates are: Berian Ashbrook, Chesterfield county; Mary Baldwin, Hampton; Louise Blackman, Zebulon, N. C.; Lillian Boswell, Arlington county; Virginia Brown, Princess Anne county; Elaine Butler, Isle of Wight county; Ethel Cadmus, Aden; Anne H. Campbell, Upperville; Catherine Chamberlain, Manassas; Minnie Comann, Laura; Hattie Forester, Chesterfield county; Helen Fuller, (Continued on Page Four)

Freshman Class Constitutes Largest Part of Student Group

Fredericksburg State Teachers College on September 22 experienced probably the largest and most successful registration day in the history of the college. The enrollment figures for the year 1936-37 mounted to a sum total of 725 students. In October, 1935, there were 651 students registered in the office. It is quite fitting at the completion of twenty-five years as an educational institution that the size of the student body should increase in accordance with the progress of the college.

The figure of the college enrollment set at 725 does not include the students taking extension classes on Saturdays, who will increase the enrollment of the college to about 800. This year there are more transfers from other colleges than ever before. From other State institutions, there are only four new students, but fifty-six students have come to this college from liberal arts colleges. These include Sweet Briar, Hollins, Mary Baldwin, Brenau, and other well-known colleges of Virginia and other states.

The Freshman Class is, of course, always conceded to be the largest class on the campus, but this year the Freshman Class constitutes almost half of the college enrollment, namely three hundred Freshmen. They represent practically every state in the Union; however, the major part of the class consists of native born Virginians.

As a whole the student body represents states from Maine to California, from New York to Florida, Panama, Puerto Rico. There are a goodly number of students who have resided some time in the past in foreign corners of the world.

The Commercial Course seems to be the most popular in the school for the Freshmen. Many are majoring in Home Economics, while the Elementary and High School courses attract still more.

It was necessary to add two new tables to the already filled Seaboard dining hall in order to accommodate the increased number of boarding students.

Fredericksburg State Teachers College has been continually progressing ever since its opening in 1911, making a marked increase in (Continued on Page Four)

Bullet Try-outs Scheduled Tonight

Students interested in the Bullet try-outs will please meet in room seven immediately after convocation tonight. All Freshmen and new girls who wish to be on the staff are urged to attend this meeting. In all probability this will be the only try-out held during this quarter. It is hoped that aspirants for positions on the publication staff will have had previous experience in the field of journalism. A scholastic rating of "C" will be required for the first quarter before anyone can be placed on the staff. Students are asked to bring pencils and plenty of paper. Be prompt; immediately after convocation, tonight in room seven, Monroe Hall.

THE BULLET

Entered as second-class matter Nov. 14, 1927, at Fredericksburg, Va., Postoffice, under Act of March 3, 1873.

Published by
FREDERICKSBURG STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
Fredericksburg, Va.

Member of Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association
Member of Columbia Scholastic Association

STAFF FOR 1936-37

Editor—Abbie Bourke

Asso. Editor—Evelyn Riggs

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1936

We See You Daily

To you "Newcomers" there's really very little we can say. You've been made welcome by your fellow students and the faculty. You seem to have caught on quickly—you're learning (we've seen you scurry to and from class). You're having fun (we've heard those peals of laughter sound out from Frances Willard). And you're receiving advice from all quarters (we've heard it given); but are you heeding the advice?

You can spoil it all, this your college career. Don't be headstrong, don't humiliate yourself by trying to sponsor conventions foreign to the mores of the group. Don't strive to be diffident; it's far more ultra these days to fit into the group adroitly by abiding by the established and pre-existing, shall we say rules or "teasers."

Perhaps, after a summer of leisure (during which you did quite as you pleased), you do rebel at the thought of bed at eleven, one nite in town a month, et cetera; but if you'll just try real hard to conform for—say two weeks—then it won't be hard at all. Just like new shoes, they hurt like blazes for awhile and then they work down until they're just right!

Don't think you can get by—somebody's always bound to be caught. The odds are against you ten to one, so why take such outlandish chances? Be good and study those "Bayonets" till you know each rule by heart. You, no doubt, even as you read this are grumbling about "Regs" being such a bother and cramping your style. Considering the fact that there are close to 800 of us in one group, we think we have comparatively few rules. We'll admit there are a few of the rules we'd like to see abolished—but we must learn to take the bitter with the sweet.

Your Support Please?

The world is agog with things politic. Statesmen make public their plea that you will become more public-minded, more patriotic than you have been prior to this time. They imply that with election time drawing nigh the need for your support and patriotism is more eminent than ever before.

Here on the campus we have no nearing election with which to strengthen our plea for more school spirit on your part. We simply need it; and it logically seems to us that that is reason enough.

We are truly a discredit to ourselves when we fail to usurp riches laid at our feet, so to speak. We have organizations here, many in number and varied in function, but they're all half dead on their feet because you haven't quite made up your minds to aid and abet them. Your auxiliary is essential.

To cite a particular instance: this is your school paper, published for your benefit and no one else's. When asked if you want a publication of this nature you answer, "Yes." When asked to support it, we get a feeble response of nothing much! We mean not only financial support, but likewise contributions. We venture to say some 400 of you at odd intervals scribble off a paragraph or so about some little happening. If it's worth your writing down, it's worth our reading. Send in your features or bring them to 216 Mary Ball.

A Visitor in Our Midst!

Editor's Note: This jargon of words was found on Sept. 26 in one of the parlors of the new dorms. Evidently these words fell from the pen of a jittery young man waiting for his lady love. Read his self-entitled "Impression."

Nice little town, quiet, serene, restful (that truck horn! Does he think he can scare that light into turning green?) Old homes, dusty places—tall columns and white paint. So very, very antique—or at least slow—but then he couldn't break the atmosphere of the place. Here we are—ten minutes late, of course. Well, let's go—and we roar away for the Hill. What's this? An iron fence and a forbidding brick gateway. Nice and jail like. It sort of completes the picture, though the all prevailing I'dire de la rusticitecment but needs this touche finale. Hello! So we want to get out at the Dean's Hdqtrs.—Yes! We do give the salute militaire as we enter—of the comely Dean we beg a tiny white card. We sailly forth in pursuit of yon fair maiden.

We pass the dorms! Okay—there you are, cabby. Tres interesting. People just arriving—cars, and trunks, and parents, and junk, and kids. Chatter and clatter. "Hi! Oh, I'm so glad to see you! Did you have a nice summer? How's your mother? the cat? Jimmy? Where are you staying—And so on! How familiar it all is. The same old divans—remember having a date on the center one, under the flood lights, as it were, with people passing by in ne'er ending line—Like trying to propose on the Forty-second street subway. "Oh, I say—will you find her for me?—and thanks" Ten minutes—twenty minutes—21 minutes—21½ minutes—and at the forty-fifth tick I feel the urge to cream to break my solitude—Why doesn't she hurry up?

Gov't. Rules Make Slight Adjustment

For the general welfare of the school and the pupils at large and in answer to queries made by old and new students this article contains information about changes in several rules governing the Student Body. These rules may be found stated in the Bayonet which is the Student's Handbook, copies of which may be obtained by any student, from Ann Lipscomb, president of Student Body, in Mary Ball 109.

Some of the changes may be found in rules concerning Sunday. Any invitation to spend Monday in town must come directly through the office of Mrs. Bushnell, Dean of Women. Students are not permitted to wear knickers, slacks, shorts, or gym suits, at any time on Sunday. No one is permitted to playing tennis, golf, or participate in any sport until after 1 p.m. Sunday afternoon. Neither are students allowed to sun-bathe on that day.

Other rules which Council wishes to stress pertain to checking-in. For a box-supper it is necessary not only to sign out with the house president, but also to check with her after dinner. When spending the night out of your own dormitory it is required that you check with your own house president, and the president of the dormitory which you are visiting.

All checking must be done in person. Complete statement of these and all regulations will be found in the Handbook, compiled for the use of all students.

It is hoped that every student at the College will carefully read the regulations so that she will understand their full interpretation.

List of Student Teachers for Qt.

English I, Elizabeth Osborn and Juanita Owen; English II, Elizabeth Edwards and Ruby Motley; English III, Alice Phillips; English IV, Mary Crehan; History I, Selma Pland and Frances Kirkwood; History II, Pauline Kling and Evelyn Riggs; History III, Elizabeth Kalnen; History IV, Lois Peterson; General Science, Rubnette Young, Charlotte Frazer; Biology, Mamie Gilliespie and Dorothy Chittum; Chemistry, Emily Clay Rowe; Math I, Virginia Spain and Frances Mayse; French I, Phyllis Teed; French II, Eloise Trussell; Latin I, Ruth Staples; Home Economics Training School, Katherine Turner; Home Economics, Fred H. S., Abbie Bourke and Genevieve Tyson.

Teaching Assignments, Elementary

First grade, Verna Bergeson, Sara Harville, Barbara Shepherd, Ruby Poole; Second grade, Mary Garth, Elizabeth Woolfork; Third grade, Geraldine Mims, Nina Jones; fourth grade, Marjorie Horner, Margaret Graves, Elizabeth Clark; Fifth grade, Mary M. Wood, Lucille Healy, Dorothy Clarke; Sixth grade, Ruth Chesley, Dorothy Verlander, Katherine Armistead; Seventh grade, Emily Day, Nancy Cooper, Pearl Hudson.

Music

First grade, Verna Bergeson and Ruby Poole; Second grade, Mary Garth; Third grade, Geraldine Mims; Fourth grade, Marjorie Horner; Fifth grade, Miriam Boyer and Fay Luther; Sixth grade, Ruth Chesley; Seventh grade, Pearl Hudson; Fred H. S. Martha Whitaker.

Physical Education

First grade, Misses Shepherd and Harville; Second grade, Misses Woolfork and Garth; Third grade, Misses Mims and Elmer; Fourth grade, Elmer and Clark (Boys); Fifth grade, Healy and Easterly (Boys); Sixth grade, Armistead and Johnson (Boys); Seventh grade, Easterly and Cooper (Boys); High School, Freshmen and Sophomores, Miss Taylor; Juniors and Seniors, Miss Kalnen; Fred H. S., Miss Ball (alt. days).

* Indicates major or minor in physical education. Other teachers are majoring or minoring in Elementary Education.

Commercial

Bookkeeping III, Margaret V. Smith; Bookkeeping IV, Margaret Twiford; Shorthand III, Virginia Comahn; Shorthand IV, Kathryn

Mary Says...

A new year has started—and the college girl must don her thinking cap. What could be more appropriate than one of those darling velvets for your cap. You find them in the most adorable styles—cut for back on the head, exposing the features—also allowing means of escape for soft waves and curls. Some are slashed in the crown to allow even more curls to creep out. To accompany this mood, we select one of those mysterious dinner velvets—ang and slinky—but contains all of that "certain air" about it. A jacket accompanies the gown, which in itself is a dream. Short, with a flory peplum and numerous buttons blazing a trail from the high neck to the waist—of course, the jacket may be removed, and what have you? A darling delightful evening dress, cut low in the back and draped neck line—what girl wouldn't, in this attire, have all those Cadets, Midshipmen, Cavaliers, or Spiders all a-twitter at Openings.

For the brisk fall days one searches for warmth, and delves into woollens. Still we want dresses that breathe of quality and distinction. Strangely enough, these are found in the desirable fabrics as well as bright and gay colors. This smart frock illustrated may be obtained in any of the lovely new shades. The insert and collar may be of broad-tail or fabric. Tiny buttons are seen in groups—and what could be more swaggery than these new low kick pleats, six in number. McCalls features this dress in its September number.

Accessories, 'tis said, will either make or break a costume. Significant suedes are emphatically the vogue. Not only in footwear, but in handbags. Chic styles are available in supple French antelope suede and are definitely fashioned for the fairest of feminine hands. Gloves of this soft material may be matched, both in shade and material.

Just a word more about that coat for the first game. Rousing cheers as the point is scored—and more rousing cheers for coats that are new and exciting. These are seen in the gayest of colors, plaids, and checks. A coat like this is very important for fall, irresistibly charming.

Alpha Phi to Entertain Pledges

Under the competent leadership of the sponsor, Miss Ellen K. Dodd, and the president, Miss Kay Dryden, Alpha Phi Sigma is being organized for the present session.

A big party is being planned for both new and old members. Those who are members of this organization are anticipating this event. It has been rumored that the party includes a supper. The next issue of the Bulletin will carry further details.

Invitations have been extended to the large number of freshmen who were valedictorians or salutatorians of their high school classes. Other students whose records entitle them to membership have been included also.

For those who are not acquainted with the organization, Alpha Phi Sigma is a National Honorary scholastic fraternity, with fourteen chapters throughout the United States.

Abbie Bourke has lost some weight, hasn't she? You're a sylph to be sure, Abbie. Was it exercise or dieting?

Nebelung; Typing III, Elizabeth Haley; Typing IV, Virginia Northan; Commercial Arith., Nina Wäde-Dalton.

Fredericksburg High School Typing and Bookkeeping, Beatrice Campbell, Frances Sherman, Evelyn Bickers.

300 Freshmen Attend 'Kid Party'

Nearly three hundred freshman girls donned bloomer dresses and hair ribbons, Friday, Sept. 25, at the "Kid Party" given by the Y.W.C.A. for the "little sisters." Due to the fact that cold weather prevailed, the dance was not held on the roof garden as was previously planned, but in the gymnasium.

Mrs. C. L. Bushnell, Dean of Women, Dr. Morgan L. Combs, president of the college, and Mrs. Frances Ramey, professor of history, acted as judges of the costumes, with the final decision made according to the applause of the students for their favorites.

Virginia Fruit, a Richmond girl, looking very Alice-in-Wonderlandish in her costume won the prize awarded to the most kiddish looking girl.

"I certainly was surprised to get the award," said Virginia, "I think it was one of the greatest thrills in my life."

Some of the runners-up in the contest were Kitty Roberts, Marjorie Powell, and Jean Moore.

The dance music was supplied by Roland Leveque's Dance Orchestra, and at the end of the evening lollipops were distributed.

A. A. Sponsors Play Day Program

Play Day, sponsored by the Athletic Association for the Freshmen and the new girls, transfers from other colleges, was held last Saturday, Oct. 3. This annual event introduces the students to the Athletic Association which is one of the major organizations of the school.

Dr. E. Alvey Heads Education Dept.

Dr. Edward A. Alvey has been recently appointed Dean of Instruction here. For the past two sessions he has served in the capacity of Professor of Education and Director of Teacher Training.

Before coming to S.T.C. two years ago, Dr. Alvey was on the staff of the Department of Education at the University of Virginia.

He received the degrees of Bachelor of Arts, Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy at the University of Virginia.

A FROSH THOT

I find I'm just a Freshman And it seems so very queer, For I used to be a Senior, It was only just last year; But I find I am a Freshman And since that will be my lot I'd much rather be a freshman Than a classman that I'm not.

Society

In the midst of this world of mighty happenings, the truly most important event in the world (according to Milady's heart!) is the PARTY she's going to attend, the football game she simply can't miss, and the trip she's taking to Richmond to see HIM. So—we'll do our best to play the part of raconteur.

Sara Grey last week-end attended the wedding of her cousin in Richmond.

Martha Epes, Virginia Ehaugh, Nini Irby, and "Scoutie" Booker all decided to trek down to Blackstone for Saturday and Sunday.

Sue Brodinhann, Annabel Combs, Gertrude Richardson and Jacqueline Smith were among those who went home on Oct. 23.

Mary Lou Monroe visited her aunt in Woodford.

A list of the guests at the college for the past two week-ends includes Margaret Lamb, Evelyn Tomlinson, "Cassie" Brown, Vivian Woodard, Margaret Moore, and Virginia Moody.

Keyhole Komments

A designing junior asked if she could have Senior privileges and entertain on the campus if she succeeded in "dating" the new bachelor on the Faculty and the Dean of Women had to think fast to answer her.

That was a delicious little Freshman who explained her lateness in the dining room at lunch—she had taken such a long time to go to the laundry with her big colorful laundry bag. Why not? She had gone to the SUNSHINE LAUNDRY.

Mary X— (talking through the wrong end of the French telephone)

"Central, I want to speak to my boy friend."

What a Spartan in spirit—"I'll stick," said a Freshman, "even if I have to use adhesive plaster to hold me here."

A new-comer who wanted to call on his "sweetie" rang the fire-bell this time and when challenged by the question, "Don't you know when that bell rings every girl rushes into the hall?" he said as far as he was concerned she could not get there too soon. Love is like that.

By looking through rose colored glasses can anyone see any resemblance between Eloise Trussell and a piece of cake; it has been done you know.

Alice Rife is advertising for a little machine that says "hello, hi or hay." Alice is a patrol girl and on her way to meals she encounters everyone coming from the dining hall. Some of you future inventors see what you can do.

Here's a job for you Dr. Shankle—One of your Freshman English students hopes that the "rostrum" will soon be put up so she can find out where the girls live around here.

Doris Lafon was more surprised than pleased when she absent-mindedly forgot to go to the first hour of a double hour class. She walked in, seated herself, and noticing a few curious glances in her direction, she asked if the bell had rung yet.

Betty Jones, transfer from Stratford College, has a passion for cream colored wheels. Maybe she'll tell you why.

Mary T. Kettenbeck passed a note in class asking that the receiver be sure to notice the black lisle hose and red ankle bands of the girl next to her. Both of them figured that there was a Hawaiian in our midst. They weren't used to town-girl club initiations.

Starring in the college production, "Seven Little Sisters," are: Ruth Cheshire, Ruth Harris, Ruth Cowles, Dottie Padgett, Leo Weiss.

One thing that the old girls miss on quiet evenings is Zonie Compton's laugh. Wasn't Zonie's laugh unique?

A sight for sore eyes, is to see our worthy fire-chief, Bill Easley, practicing up by moving the water-works, (sprinklers) around the cam-

Peep at Fredericksburg S. T. C. From the Air

Here is an exceptionally good air view of the campus on which you are now living. Can you name each building as you pick it out? And how about those nice little afternoon walks you take; can you see the paths?

Shelton & Bro.

SHOE REPAIRING

We Dye Shoes Any Color
Work Called for and Delivered

PHONE 152
1004 Main Street
Fredericksburg, Va.

PEOPLE'S SERVICE Drug Stores

924 MAIN STREET

Ulman's

LIFETIME JEWELRY and REPAIRING

903 Main Street
FREDERICKSBURG, VA

RADIOS...

Sparton—Zenith—Grunow

REPAIRS TO ALL MAKES

Wight Engineering and Sales Co.

405 Commerce Street—Phone 1121

THE BRENT STORE

LINGERIE—HOSIERY—UNDERWEAR
GLOVES—NOVELTIES—NOTIONS
Dry Goods—Millinery

Your Shopping Center

Phone 70

Fredericksburg, Va.

Student Council Directs Convocation

Convocation tonight will be in charge of Student Council. The members of Joint Council will sit on the steps, to present a program representative of the ideals of Student Government as a welcome to all new students at the College.

Ann Lipscombe, president of the Student Body will preside at the program and introduce the theme of "Honor."

Freshman Training Began on Monday

Freshman Training began Monday night, Sept. 28. This is a period of two weeks orientation for all new students at the College, in which rules of the college are explained. For about twenty minutes every night, the students meet in small groups with a council member, who helps them comprehend and learn the College regulations. Cabinet members of the Y.W.C.A. meet with each group to explain the work of Freshman Commission. A representative Freshman will be selected from each group to form the commission for this year.

Freshman Training will end with the final test, given either Thursday or Friday. Following this, the Freshman will organize their class and elect officers to lead their class through the year.

pus. Bill would like to know ahead of time just which nite this winter is going to be the coldest. There's a fire drill in the offering.

The freshmen on third floor, back hall, Frances Willard, are trying out the axiom "Honor is what you are in the dark." The lights have been going out frequently but so far it has proved correct.

Varina Britt sighed as she said that no one could remember her name. Some one heard her, so now her chief worry is getting people to say "Teena," instead of "Wheat-lina."

The seasonal rains never fail to bring forth a stupendous aggregation of queer hats. Have you seen Clarkie?

Bo White says she's lonesome but you can cheer her up by singing "Treasure Island."

There are plenty of cute Freshmen in Frances Willard this year.

The Florence Fashion Shop

Always Something New

but Ella Gordon Rowe is still holding her own on Saturday and Sunday nites. Maybe it's a case of age before beauty, eh, Ella Gordon?

Miss Calhoun is still after the boy who wrote the letter which caused Fran McLeod to squel as only Fran can, in the library. Fran explains that Blair writes he is coming up so—Well, I'd pledge Miss Calhoun if I were you, young man!

Mary Ellen Lee wishes somebody would convince Dot Hill and Maude Rae Smith to wear their names on their backs, she really can't tell them apart.

E. M. Troland

Smart Shoes--That's All

Home of Red Cross Shoes.

Wakefield Building
FREDERICKSBURG, VA.

THE HUB "LADIES' APPAREL"

Goolrick's Modern Pharmacy

Cosmetics
Sodas . . . Drugs

PHONE 33
901 MAIN STREET
Fredericksburg, Va.

CRISMOND'S

Beautiful Shoes . . . Hosiery Too!

INDIVIDUAL ATTENTION

SHOES SCIENTIFICALLY FITTED BY X-RAY

Fredericksburg - - - Virginia

Make the Ulman Store Your Store

Dresses,
Coats,
Millinery,
Etc.

Riding Togs,
Skirts,
Sweaters,
Etc.

S. T. C. Students Always Welcome

Joseph H. Ulman

922 Main Street

WEARING APPAREL FOR LADIES AND MEN

"The Store Where Quality Counts"

That cavernous spot (just in the middle of your tummy) which contrarily refuses to enjoy a permanent state of satiety—well, to be frank, it craves attention. It doesn't care to be filled 3 times a day at regular dining hall meals; it longs for several of those daily tea-room teatotes. Be kind to your tummy—give him what he wants!

Be it a chocolate nut-covered sundae or a spicy toasted olive sandwich—don't be a meanie, give in and buy to your tummy's content. Oooh, and then you say "But 'buy' means money and we have such a small allowance." Here's a bit of a secret that's almost too good to keep—all of the "goodies" (save a few) in our College tea room cost but five cents.

If you're thinking of rushing to the tea room in a few seconds—wait until you read this schedule of the hours during which the tea room is open:

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, 8:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m.; Saturday, 8:30 a.m.-1:30 p.m.; Sunday, 4:00 p.m.-5:00 p.m.; Every night, 8:30 p.m.-9:30 p.m.

Any night that there is an entertainment for the entire student body, the Tea Room will not be opened until after said program. Luncheons are served daily except Saturday and Sunday from 11:30 to 1:30 p.m. Each day there is always a "so-called special" plate for 10c. Sometimes they even serve chop-suey, and it's delicious!

And to save you new girls a tinge of embarrassment, that cute lil' waitress who serves from 12:30 to 1:30 wasn't sent out of nowhere to save you from impatient waiting at the counter. In fact, she doesn't help you at all! Waitress service is for the faculty and visitors—so don't forget. But then—I'd much rather stand at the counter and get my own Hershey bar—cause it means I can start eating all the sooner!

S.T.C. Grads Win Positions

(Continued from Page One)

Pittsylvania county; Sarah Goodson, Portsmouth; Annie Laurie Hare, North Carolina; Doris Harrell, Cypress Chapel; Julia Hartley, Louisa; Margaret House, Madison county; Catherine Jenkins, Rappahannock county; Mary Jenkins, Aden; Kathleen Kerlin, Joplin; Edith Looney, Buchanan county; Mary E. Lowe, Loudoun county; Louise Marshall, Culpeper; Evelyn Nixon, Middletown; Doris Foote, Ruckersville; Mildred Reynolds, Culpeper; Charlotte Robertson, Fauquier county; Lavinia Yancey, Rappahannock county; Marian Yeamens, Matthews Court House; Mary L. Waltman, Chesterfield county; Eulalie Wimbrow, Accomac county; and Dorothy Wood, Alexandria.

New Members of Faculty Begin Term

(Continued from Page One)

he received his A.B. degree, and the Ohio State University where he received his A.M. degree.

Miss Show holds an A.B. degree from the University of Wichita, Kans., and an M.S. degree from the State Agricultural College, Manhattan, Kans.

725 Students Enroll In F. S. T. College

(Continued from Page One)

enrollment each year, and constantly adding or acquiring new improvements on the campus. As the twenty-sixth school year opens, it is fitting to say that this college can compare favorably with any other college.

MILLER'S Specialty Shops

SPECIALISTS IN LADIES' APPAREL

Fredericksburg - Virginia

Riding Club Opens Season October 19

The Riding Club of S.T.C. will open its riding season Oct. 19. It is expected that many new riders will join its ranks as horseback riding has become one of the most popular sports on the hill.

The group is composed of friendly, jolly girls who are enthusiastic and buoyant. They are interested in the sport of riding, not only for the fun and recreation, but also for the purpose of developing the ability of horsemanship and the ability of being able to teach riding. The club has entrance qualifications for membership and each new rider becomes a member under the third degree, progressing to the second, the first degree as her ability becomes recognized. "Tryouts" for these promotions are held whenever the rider feels that she can qualify. The members feel that certain standards must be required; not only for skill but also for safety.

The club has many activities besides its regular class lessons. The twenty miles of winding bridle paths in Battlefield Park make trips a pleasant prospect. Breakfast rides are popular with hot coffee and doughnuts at the end of the trail. A picnic is being planned for the fall season. The annual Horse show takes place in the spring. All members of the club ride in this show and all blue ribbon winners compete for their name to be engraved on the S.T.C. Riding Trophy. This is the highest honor that can be won by any member of the club.

You are invited to belong to this group—for membership is open to any student who passes her riding test. The qualifications are such that both the beginning and advanced riders can participate. If you wish to join—do it now.

Boost A. A.

Boost the A.A. while it's booming. Of course all the freshmen have heard of the Athletic Association, but may, and should want to know something more of what it is, what it does, and how they may become eligible for membership.

Read what your Bayonet says about the A.A. Besides having charge of all the sports activities on the hill, it sponsors dancing—both social and creative, hiking, riding, picnics, play day, and all lively entertainment. To many girls the little log cabin affords more fun than any other spot for miles around. Any group of girls can spend Saturday nights in the cabin, by signing with the cabin chairman in A.A. Council, and getting a faculty member as a chaperon. Try it—it's loads of fun!

It isn't hard to become a member of A.A. if one is really interested in sports. The various activities such as class practices and teams, hiking, riding, tennis, archery, swimming, and golf give so many points; and 75 points make one eligible for membership. Then comes the fun of being initiated. Be sure to turn in your points to the chairman of the sport you participate in, they can't do you any good.

A.A. needs good, interested, active members. Don't you want to be one? You'll be hearing from A.A. quite a lot—at least some of its members have such a reputation.)

A.A. is expecting big things from the Freshmen in hockey. (Old students have already proved what they can do.) If you don't know how to play, now is the time to learn. Come to practices and try out for your class team. After a few weeks' practice interclass competition begins, and with it—real excitement.

Some of the upper classmen are sighing, "Oh, to be in Virginia Hall, now that house meetings are here." Ice cream is usually furnished on such occasions.

The Fountain Service

415 William St.
Drugs—Sundries—Sodas
Sandwiches—Kodak Films
Your Patronage Appreciated
"We Always Serve the Best"

"Campus Queen"

Velveteen and Plaid Sports Dress

3.95

Dashing plaid skirts topped with blouses of the finest twill back velveteen that ever rushed 'cross a campus. You'll adore the pockets—some with slide fasteners, and jaunty plaid ascots. Grand colors. Sizes 12-18.

TAILORED OR LACY SILK CREPE SLIPS

An unusually low price for this fine quality. Bias cut to fit sleekly. Full length—48 inches long! V-neck. 34-44.

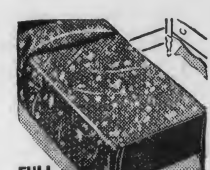

TUCKSTITCH PAJAMAS

Heavier quality—but priced less at Ward's! Long or short sleeves. Full sized, will not shrink. Tearose, blue. 15-17.

Deep-Tone Plaids New Suede Finish!

A vastly improved soft finish like that you'll find in high priced blankets. Pastel plaids, if you prefer. Full bed size, 70x80 inches. Sateen bound.

FULL SIZE BEDSPREADS WORTH AT LEAST $1.29

98¢
Jacquard floral pattern! Rayon for beauty... cotton for wear. Full 80x105 inches. Value-plus.

Sun and Tubfast CRETONNES

Exclusive patterns! Expensive backgrounds! Fine weight for drapes! 36 in. wide.

Curtain Materials

4 beautiful patterns! Assorted colors! 35 and 39 in. width! Make panels, priscillas!

QUALITY DRY CLEANING

SUNSHINE LAUNDRY
LAUNDERS & DRY CLEANERS
FREDERICKSBURG - VIRGINIA

Developing and Printing

Film Left at 10 a.m.
Ready 5 p.m. Same Day
JUDSON SMITH

MONTGOMERY WARD